The Day School's ability to maintain and expand its level of excellence in Jewish and general studies is directly related to the generous support of friends, alumni, parents, faculty, staff and grandparents. The Annual Campaign helps to both fill the gap between tuition revenue and the school's actual operating costs and to provide financial assistance to Day School families.

Each Day School family receives one ticket to the fundraiser included with its tuition payment (the contract ticket). Additional tickets are available for purchase for $250 each. The number of tickets associated with the Annual Campaign giving levels is as follows:
